

Across The Border

Bruce Springsteen

A D A E

A D A
Tonight my bag is packed, tomorrow I'll walk these tracks

E A
That will lead me across the border

A D A
Tomorrow my love and I will sleep 'neath auburn skies

E A
Somewhere across the border

D E
We'll leave behind my dear the pain and sadness we found here

A D
And we'll drink from the Bravo's muddy waters

A D A
Where the sky grows gray and wide we'll meet on the other side

E A
There across the border

A D A
For me you'll build a house high up on a grassy hill

E A
Somewhere across the border

A D A
Where pain and memory, pain and memory have been stilled

E A
There across the border

D
And sweet blossoms fill the air

E A D
Pastures of gold and green roll down into cool clear waters

A
And in your arms 'neath the open skies

D A E A
I'll kiss the sorrow from your eyes, there across the border

Across The Border

Bruce Springsteen

Tonight we'll sing the songs I'll dream of you mi Corazon

And tomorrow my heart will be strong

And may the saints' blessing and grace

Carry me safely into your arms, there across the border

SOLO

For what are we without hope in our hearts

That someday we'll drink from God's blessed waters

And eat the fruit from the vine I know love and fortune will be mine

Somewhere across the border
