

"Running Bear"

G                      G7                      C                      G
On the bank of the river Stood Running Bear Young Indian brave
G    D7                      G
On the other side of the river Stood his lovely Indian maid
G                                      G7                      C                      G
Little White Dove was her name Such a lovely sight to see
G    D7                      G
But their tribes fought with each other So their love could never be

Chorus:

                    C                      G                      D7                      G    G7
Running Bear loved Little White Dove With a love big as the sky
                    C                      G                      D7                      G
Running Bear loved Little White Dove With a love that couldn't die

G                                      G7                      C                      G
He couldn't swim the raging river 'Cause the river was too wide
G    D7                      G
He couldn't reach the Little White Dove Waiting on the other side
G    G7                      C                      G
In the moonlight he could see her Throwing kisses 'cross the waves
G    D7                      G
Her little heart was beating faster Waiting for her Indian brave

Chorus

G                                      G7                      C                      G
Running Bear dove in the water Little White Dove did the same
G    D7                      G
And they swam out to each other Through the swirling stream they came
G    G7                      C                      G
As their hands touched and their lips met The raging river pulled them down
G    D7                      G
Now they'll always be together In their happy hunting ground

Chorus (2x)
